A. BARTON HEPBURN

A. Barton Hepburn

A. BARTON HEPBURN, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Chase National Bank, New York, to whom this volume of the KALEIDOSCOPE is dedicated is recognized throughout the United States, and in fact in all the money centres of the world, as a leading authority on financial and economic questions. His career has been an inspiration to Middlebury men, and his abiding interest in his college, particularly his splendid gift of the Hepburn Dormitory, has won their esteem and devotion.

Mr. Hepburn was born in Colton, N. Y., July 24, 1846. In 1867 he entered Middlebury College, subsequently receiving the degree of A.B. and LL.D. (also D.C.L. St. Lawrence University, 1906; LL.D. Columbia University, 1911; LL.D. Williams College, 1911; LL.D. University of Vermont, 1915.) He practiced law in Colton, N. Y., was Commissioner of Schools, St. Lawrence Co., and member of the New York Assembly, 1875-1880. In 1880, he was appointed Superintendent of the New York State Banking Department. In 1892, President Harrison appointed him Comptroller of the Currency. Upon his retirement as Comptroller, he became President of the Third National Bank, New York, and in 1899 took charge of the Chase National Bank, of which he was President until 1911, when he was elected to his present position as Chairman of the Board.

He is a director in many banking and business corporations and a member of numerous clubs and societies. He has also been President of the New York Clearing House, President of the Chamber of Commerce and President of the National Currency Association; was Chairman of the Commission to Revise the Banking Laws, 1907 and 1913; is Chairman, Currency Commission, American Bankers Association and President of the Bankers Club of America; was made an Officer of the Legion of Honor by the President of France, 1912. He is also a Trustee of the Rockefeller Foundation and a Fellow of Middlebury College.

All Hail, Ye Jolly Juniors!

ND all thanks that the KALEIDOSCOPE turns me up, in this year of grace 1916, "sweet Sixteen," and sweeter SEVENTEEN.

Preparation, cooperation, operation, ration, express the proper sequence and necessary result to be attained in this work-a-day world.

College teaches us to marshal our intellectual resources, to concentrate mental energy, to study and think methodically, scientifically and intensely; it teaches us, also, to work together, emphasizes fraternity, inspires love and loyalty and gives the proper mental attitude towards life's responsibilities. The culture, the amenities, the philosophies, the artistic research and the enjoyments of life are necessarily subordinate while ambitious energy is toiling for living needs, but are of paramount importance as soon as sufficient financial reserve is accumulated for proper protection to oneself and one's dependents.

Humanity recognizes no stronger tie than maternal love, and Alma Mater proximates the mother of the fireside in her hold upon her sons and daughters. You will find this a supporting and consoling truth at all times, and you will find, also, as the curriculum of life hurries you toward your last semesters, that the old associations, the old ties and the old loves grip you with bonds of growing strength, albeit with greater tenderness. What more natural than that one should yield to college associates a full measure of love and yield to the college itself the fullest measure of support?

May the choicest mundane treasure,
And happiness galore,
And blessings in full measure,
Be your portion evermore.

A. BARTON HEPBURN.

Foreword

IN compiling this volume of the KALEIDOSCOPE, we have striven to reflect truthfully all sides of student life at Middlebury today. An honest effort has been given to every department. We have tried to make the Annual more than an inanimate catalogue of the year's events. It has been our purpose to make every page glow with the spirit of our Alma Mater, and every picture recall some fond memory. If we have failed in reality, attribute it to lack of means and ability and not to insincerity of purpose. Look kindly at our faults; our success depends upon your approval. Let your judgment be fair.

Class History

THE record of the class of 1916 altho compared with the achievements of the most brilliant classes of the past should easily settle in the minds of all that it is unquestionably composed of individuals who as a body, have accomplished more than any of their predecessors. Two football victories, a win in the tug-of-war, a baseball win, two successive basketball championships and a tie for a third; a Freshman banquet that so far eclipsed the best efforts of former classes that later organizations have not even ventured to mention the word banquet, and admittedly the best KALEIDOSCOPE that ever left the Tuttle Press, are but a few of the things we have done during our four years at Middlebury. However, we feel that it is unnecessary to further speak of the honors which have been bestowed upon us and which we have so graciously received. We are indeed willing and even desiring to let our results speak for themselves.

Now we are looking forward to commencement. The time when officially our connections with Middlebury are at an end, but we trust that each one of us will always feel the influence of the invisible ties which stretch out indefinitely in all directions and which center around our Alma Mater. Greater opportunities than ever await us, and it is our earnest hope that each one of us may enter eagerly into his or her chosen work and cross the line a winner, thereby bringing to our college added honor and glory, which she justly deserves.

Class History

WELL here we are finishing up the third lap of our college career and still going strong.

Now just because we like uniqueness and originality, not to mention modesty, we will depart from the old custom of self laudation and say nothing about our adeptness as hat-scrap artists, our agility as track performers, our cleverness in baseball or our prowess in football.

So we have decided to let our versatile achievments speak for themselves, and in the meantime, we will speak of other things.

"1917" (all hail the numerals) while rejoicing in her record has still higher aims and ambitions. If, with our College as a standard, we can continue to grow in the very best sense of the word as she has grown since our arrival, we will realize to some extent our ambitions; so now classmates let's on with the race and make the strongest fourth lap finish ever registered!

Junior Class

HAROLD EUGENE ADAMS, ΔΥ

Bridgeport, Connecticut

Bridgeport High School; Chairman Freshman Debating Committee (1); Class Track (1); Mandolin Club (1, 2, 3); Glee Club (1); Orchestra (1, 2, 3); Connecticut Club; Engineering Club; Chairman Advertising Committee of Union (3); Editor-in-Chief of Kaleidoscope (3).

Ah! The Editor-in-Chief. "Addie" is one of those quiet get-there members of the class who deeply regrets that lack of space forbids that we dwell upon his shining virtues. Being the chief Pajandrum we daren't say much about him, but 'tis said he is devoting a great deal of his attention to the subject of constellations, especially to Mar(s).

AUGUSTUS PALMER BENEDICT, ΧΨ

Walden, New York

Walden High School; Class Football (1); Manager Class Baseball (2); Social Board of Union (2); Assistant Manager Tennis (2); Assistant Manager Baseball (3); Secretary and Treasurer of Interfraternity Council (3); Alchemist Club (3); Manager Class Hockey (3); Photographer Kaleidoscope (3).

"Benny" is a rather active youngster, but not an ordinary or garden butterfly. He is a society lion of grace and charm. It is delightful to watch this graceful youth disport himself on he campus. Yes, girls, this is the gentleman you were asking about, the good looking lad with the smiling eyes.

DURWOOD HENRY BOEHM

Southwick, Massachusetts.

New Britain High School, Connecticut; Transferred from Northland College, Wisconsin (3); Finance Committee of Union (3).

New and young, but not so fresh as some of our new comers.

Faithful and sincere, "Boehm" is going to make a "hummer."

Eugene Field Boyce, ΔΥ

Middlebury, Vermont

Middlebury High School; Class Track (2); Alchemists (3); Engineering Club.

Here's "Gene," the boy with the swaggering stride,
The boy that knows all subjects wide.
He likes the girls, but he keeps away,
He'll fall good and hard some fine day.

Thomas Francis Bresnahan, ΔΚΕ

Fitchburg, Massachusetts

Fitchburg High School; Varsity Football (1, 2, 3); Varsity Track (1, 2); Varsity Baseball (1, 2); Class Football (1, 2); Class Track (1, 2); Class Baseball (1, 2), Captain (2); College Welfare Committee (1); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Social Committee of Union (2); Vice-President of Athletic Association (3); Delta Tau.

"Tommy" petitioned the Editor not to record all of his escapades as he wanted to send a copy home. For the good of the publication his request has been granted, it being considered a fair deal by all concerned.

Darrell Douglass Butterfield, ΧΨ

Middlebury, Vermont

Middlebury High School; Class Football (1, 2); Class Baseball (1); Varsity Baseball Squad (2); Varsity Football Squad ((2); Alchemists.

"Butty," the freshest of all fresh men,
Green beyond the power of pen,
But the Sophomores tamed his spirit wild,
And now he is gentle, meek, and mild.

Robert Frankland Coats, ΔΥ

Rouses Point, New York

Rouses Point High School; Class Track (1); Class Baseball (1); Class Basketball (3); Varsity Track Squad (1); Play Cast "School" (1); Glee Club (2, 3); Deutscher Verein; Social Committee of Union (2); Junior Play Committee (3).

The author of "A Fair Deal." As a salesman he bids fair to surpass even those on the East side. His vaudeville ability has been demonstrated in many of Vermont's theatres. As a comedian "Bob" reminds us of Dutch Shaefer, the now-celebrated bush-leaguer.

Harold Allen Damon, ΚΔΡ

Nashua, New Hampshire

Nashua High School; Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Associate Editor "Campus" (2); Class Basketball (2, 3); Social Committee of Union (2); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Junior Prom Committee (3); Sages.

"Brownie," the most popular man on the campus; he brings mail to the dormitories. We hear "Brownie" is going to buy a set of furs because early in the winter he got "Frosted" near(?) the library.

Charles Andrews Danolds, ΔΣ

Medina, New York

Medina High School; Manager Basketball (1, 3); Class Football (1, 2); President (2); Chairman Social Committee of Union (2); Secretary of Union (3); Class Track (1); Interfraternity Council; Christmas Play Cast (1); Sages; Delta Tau.

"Chuck" is a small man, but like Napoleon, a man of attainments. A super-member of the Fussers' Club. One of our professional invalids, having taken the "Leach" treatment ever since he entered college.

Said Dartley

Jersey City, New Jersey

Springfield High School.

"Jeff" is our little Armenian,
He wanted to be an American,
Until last year some "Frosh" cracked his head,
Since then he's content to be foreign instead.

Harold M. Davis, ΔΥ

Malone, New York

Franklin Academy; Class Football (1); Play Cast "School" (1); Class Track (1, 2); Financial Committee of Union (3); Social Service Committee (2), Chairman (3); Executive Committee of Union (3); President of Christian Service Club (2, 3); Sages.

The eminent theologian; "Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed as one of these." But when we take into consideration that Solomon lived two thousand years ago, is it any wonder that this generation has changed.

Karl William Davis, ΔΥ

Chester, Vermont

Chester High School; Class Baseball (1); Class Football (1, 2); Varsity Baseball Squad (2); Baseball Second Team (1, 2); Assistant Business Manager of "Campus" (3); Junior Prom Committee (3).

"Aimless Amy." Though his sense of perception is somewhat impaired he can distinguish a small "Dot" within calling distance.

Theodore Henry Dewhirst, ΔΥ

Groveland, Massachusetts

Groveland High School; Varsity Baseball (2); Class Baseball (1, 2), Captain (1); Class Football (1); Interfraternity Council (3); Social Committee of Union (3); Massachusetts Club; Deutscher Verein (3); Sages.

Dewey's day dreams are a source of constant worry to his friends who are inclined to call him "Buggy." His chief occupation is counting the hours between 2 and 7 P. M.

John Edmund Downing, Jr.

East Portchester, Connecticut

Portchester High School; Manager Class Track (2).

Here is another proof that a man's character cannot be determined by his outward appearances.

"Fuzzy" is the man with the "pep" as all recall the Montpelier trip. It is lucky for the railway officials that he decided as he did, for at other times he has been known to test the transportation facilities of the R. R. and V. C. on the promenade deck of a cattle train.

William Henry Edmunds, ΚΔΡ

Bristol, Vermont

Bristol High School; Transferred from Norwich University; Varsity Debating (2); Assistant Manager of Baseball (3); Interfraternity Council (3); Sages.

"Bill," fair, fat and $\frac{4}{2}^{0}$. This precocious Indian came to us our Sophomore year and has since "argued" his way into favor. That coarse body hides a mighty mind.

Harold Blake Gammell, ΔΥ

East Barnet, Vermont

St. Johnsbury Academy; Secretary Alchemists.

The inventive genius—but his inventions culminate in a long flow of New England dialect which would make Aristotle and Plato appear as his progenies or his pupils.

George Wilberforce Grant, ΑΣΦ

Derry, New Hampshire

Pinkerton Academy; Class Football (1, 2); Varsity Football Squad (1, 2, 3); Hazing Committee (2); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Junior Play Committee (3).

These are the chubby features of the sandy-haired "General." He comes from Derry, the city of beautiful women. He is one of the few men that we didn't have to urge to have his mug shot. This pink and jovial boy is likened unto his little brother "Danny."

Milton Lawrence Hard, ΑΣΦ

Fairlee, Vermont

Colby Academy; Varsity Football (1, 2, 3); President (1); Class Football (1, 2), Captain (1, 2); Class Basketball (2, 3); Class Track (1, 2, 3); Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Junior Prom Committee (3); Interfraternity Council (3); Delta Tau.

The college strong man and "side-door Pullman magnate." Apply to "Bucko" for all information concerning railroads, freights, etc. Heaven is just one great big feather bed.

Roy Dudley Harris, KΔP,

Middlebury, Vermont

Middlebury High School; Class Football (2); Finance Committee of Union (3).

He gets off now and then to uphold the honor of the class in football or fussing, but spends most of his time sorting mail for Uncle Sam. This last duty may explain how it is that "Roy" always has the choicest and latest bits of gossip a week ahead of time. We advise a code, boys.

Sumner Denby Harrison, ΔKE

East Orange, New Jersey

East Orange High School; Class Football (1, 2); Second Football Captain (2); Class Basketball (1); Associate Editor of "Campus"; Mandolin Club (1, 2, 3); Glee Club (1, 2); Business Manager of Kaleidoscope (3); Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Delta Tau.

Here is "Rosy," all freckled and gay.
He's there as a fusser, or so they say.
He handled the money to finance this book
And dealt out receipts with a peaceful look.
In numerous fields has he tried out his skill,
But his biggest field now seems to be on the "hill."

William Andrew Hawks, ΔKE

North Adams, Massachusetts

Drury Academy; Varsity Football Squad (1, 2, 3); Class Football (1, 2); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Delta Tau.

Our wild and wooly representative from the big town. The terror of last year's Freshman Class. We hear he aspires to an assistant professorship in the Engineering Department. Go as far as you like, "Bill."

Harold Edmund Hollister, ΔΥ

Corinth, New York

Corinth High School; Varsity Track (1, 2, 3); Class Track (1, 2, 3), Captain (2); Class Basketball (2, 3); Class Baseball (1); Manager Class Football (1); College Band (1, 2, 3); Freshman Reception Committee (2); Chair Freshman Banquet Committee (1).

In order to gain an idea of this young man's versatility, just read these quotations from his "Mem" book. "'17 is fortunate that you play basketball." "The right belle is Belle (W)right." "And he's a dandy little runner, too." "Some fusser."

Earl Frederick Horsford, ΚΔΡ

Charlotte, Vermont

Burlington High School; Goddard Seminary; Varsity Football (1, 2, 3); Class Football (1, 2); Class Track (1, 2); Varsity Track (2); Chairman Sophomore Hazing Committee (2); Social Committee of Union (3); President (3); Delta Tau.

In the line he is a power,
And at the dance, he's there,
But as the Czar of '17
He surely fills the chair.

Eugene Plinius Hubbard, ΔΚΕ

New York City, New York

Summit High School; Varsity Football Squad (1); Varsity Football (2, 3); Class Football (1, 2); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3), Captain (1); Class Track (1, 2, 3); Varsity Track Squad (1, 2); Class Hockey (3); Freshman Reception Committee (3); Delta Tau.

Behold this royal countenance. He is a young fiend on the gridiron. His bold, snappy and poetical extinction awaits the man who crosses "Gene." Many are the Freshmen he has scared into convulsions by his savage vociferations. His skill in wooing dazzles the co-eds.

Harry Walter Hyde, XΨ

Worcester, Massachusetts

South High School; Class Football (1); Social Committee of Union (2); Class Hockey (3); Associate Editor of Kaleidoscope (3); Massachusetts Club (1, 2); Apollo Club (3).

Our Harry who has a perpetual grin,
From Clark he came thinking honors to win,
He avoided the "Hill" till we all called him yellow,
Now daily he sings "She's a jolly good Fellow."

Carl Smith Kuebler, ΔY

Hackensack, New Jersey

Hackensack High School.

"Kieb," our haughty aristocrat of the campus, who always goes about with his chin in the air. And yet he's got something on the rest of us; he knows how to attend to his own business.

Fred Paul Lang, ΔKE

New Britain, Connecticut

New Britain High School; Varsity Football (1, 2, 3), Captain (3); Class Basketball (1, 2), Captain (2); Interfraternity Council (2); Class Hockey (3); Class Track (1); Delta Tau.

"Ted" is captain of our football team,
He carries the ball with plenty of steam.
He stays on the field till almost dusk,
But he never forgets his Mildred Lusk.

Charles Ridgeley Lee, Jr., ΔΚΕ

East Orange, New Jersey

East Orange High School; Class Treasurer (1); Freshman Banquet Committee (1); Freshman Reception Committee (2); Vice-President Athletic Association (3); Chairman Junior Prom Committee (3); College Rules Committee (3); Assistant Manager of Hockey (3); Cheer Leader (3); Assistant Manager Football (3); Glee Club (1, 2, 3); Class Track (1, 2, 3), Captain (3); Class Football (2); Varsity Track (1, 2, 3); Deutscher Verein (3); Alchemists (3); Delta Tau.

Dear little "Babe" Lee is all afire,
A Phi Beta Kappa Key is his desire.
We hope that he gets it—he hasn't got much,
Track M's three or four, social duties—and such.
Withal he is modest—to that we'll all swear,
From bottom to top he's a regular bear.

Webster Evans Miller, ΔΣ

Pittsfield, Massachusetts

Pittsfield High School; Glee Club (1, 2, 3); College Quartet (3); Varsity Debating Team (2); College Choir (3); First Prize Merrill Prize Speaking (2); Manager Varsity Debating Team (3); Chairman Junior Play (3); "Campus" Board (2); Sages.

"Webb," the man with a voice that goes way down into his shoes. His sonorous vocalics are heard on every occasion possible in college. He is all you can hear of the bass section of the college choir.

Vinton Wesley Mitchell

Watertown, Connecticut

Watertown High School; Class Track (1, 2); Varsity Track (1, 2); Deutscher Verein (2).

This prodigy of intellect gained his rugged constitution at the "Hash House." The man with the galvanized strain and voice like a turtle. If you were but to move over next to the women in chapel you could hear "Mitch" sing the hymns, his tune in reality sounding like "Moonlight in a Boiler Factory."

Charles Lynn Montgomery, ΔΥ

South Shaftsbury, Vermont.

North Bennington High School; Assistant Manager of Track (3); Class Football (2); College Band (1, 2, 3); Christmas Play Cast (1).

A ruddy-haired, well-meaning lad,
We fear he's going to the bad.
His life is now one round of pleasure,
He never has an hour of leisure.
To every party, dance, or ride
He goes some way whate'er betide.
Be careful, "Charley," or some day
On such a spree you'll pass away.

Carl Huntress Moulton

Underhill, Vermont

Jericho High School; Social Service Committee (1); Class Track (2); Glee Club (3).

"Miss" Moulton, the pride of our co-ed throng,
Their greatest pleasure to "Kid" him along.
The men are all worrying for Leap Year is here;
A proposal of marriage from "her" is their fear.

Robert Reed Mundy, ΔΣ

Marshfield, Massachusetts

Marshfield High School; Union Finance Committee (2); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Sages.

He has red cheeks and bright blue eyes,
What chance have we poor homely guys?
But luckily for all of us,
One's all that "Bob" at once can fuss.
"God speed you, 'Bob,'" so say we all.
We think you're gone beyond recall.

Arthur Maurice Ottman, KΔP

Schenectady, New York

Schenectady High School; Glee Club (1, 2, 3); College Quartet (1); Associate Editor "Campus" (1); First Prize Parker Contest (1); Manager Class Baseball (1); College Rules Committee (2); Class Treasurer (2); Cast in "School" (1); Third Merrill Prize (2); Student Body Editor "Campus" (3); Sages.

Here's probably one of the slickest little articles that ever came across. He's only five feet short even with his ears out and his smile on, but look out, girls, or he will get your goat. "Men, like bullets, go farthest when they are smoothest."

John Mathew Quirk, KΔP

Moriah Center, New York

Sherman Collegiate Institute; College Band (1, 2, 3); Deutscher Verein (3).

This wild Irishman hails from a large village. Most any time you may hear him blowing around, sometimes on his horn. Very accommodating; he will argue at any time on any subject with a positive guarantee to say nothing about anything.

John Andrew Reynolds, XΨ

Rutland, Vermont

Rutland High School; Junior Prom Committee (3); Class Track (1, 2); Class Baseball (1); Class Football (1, 2); Varsity Football (1, 2); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); College Rules Committee (3); College Quartet (2, 3); Glee Club (2, 3); Second Prize Merrill Contest (2).

"Jack," an erstwhile athlete, but now a "greasy grind." There's only one explanation of such a state of affairs, "He loved her, but she moved away."

Rowland Vernon Ricker, ΔΥ

Waterbury, Vermont

Waterbury High School; Associate Editor "Campus" (2); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Social Committee of Union (2); Secretary of Athletic Association (3); Assistant Manager of "Campus" (3); Alchemists (3); Sages.

One of the followers of "Perley." You can find him most any day growing cross-eyed reading burettes in the laboratory. But he never joins in with the other "rough-housers" in Chem. 6. He is a quiet boy withal.

Roy Robert Sears, ΑΣΦ

Ludlow, Vermont

Black River Academy; Class Baseball (1, 2); Second Baseball (1); Varsity Baseball Squad (2); Glee Club (1, 2, 3); College Double Quartet (3).

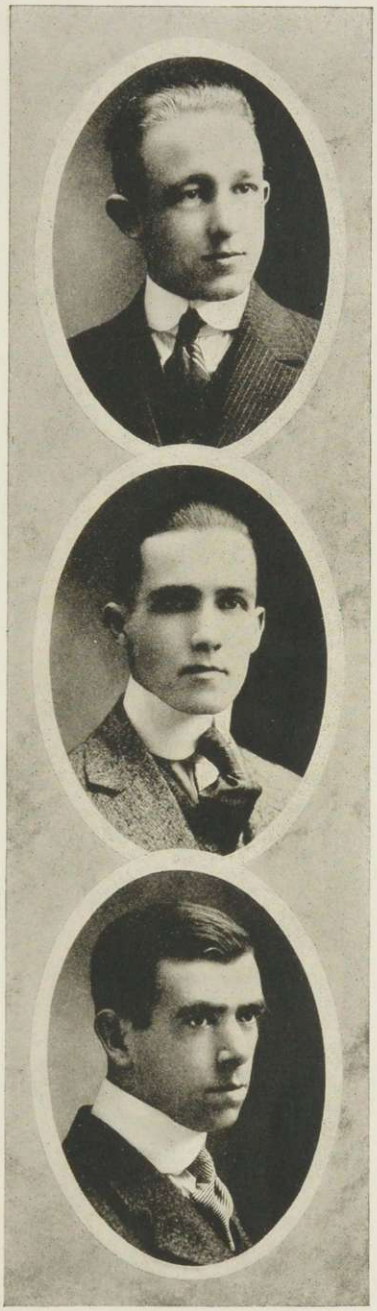
"Scissors" is our porcupine-headed Ludlow leaguer. He used to be a care-free smiling little fellow. We fear that it is a woman that has changed him—a woman or Betty's Latin.

William Slade, Jr., ΚΔΡ

Thetford, Vermont

Thetford Academy; Band (1, 2, 3); Manager of Class Basketball (2).

Here's "Bill," the incorruptible youth. Although William likes quietness and is the very essence of it himself, occasion has proved that there is a certain Noyes which pleases him immensely.



Emory Heath Towne, ΔΥ

Waterbury, Vermont

Waterbury High School; Class Football (1); College Glee Club (1, 2, 3); College Choir (3); Chairman Sophomore Hop Committee (2); College Band (1); Assistant Manager of Football (2); Manager of Football (3); Freshman Reception Committee (2); Sages; Delta Tau.

"Deac" is his name but not his way,
He goes up North to Ruth they say,
Down here he goes to all the dances,
About the entrance way he prances.
Let's wish him luck—he needs it too.
A manager needs it, if any do.

Arthur Thomas Vaughn, ΔΚΕ

Orange, New Jersey

East Orange High School; Class Football (1, 2); Mandolin Club (1, 2, 3); Glee Club (1, 2); Manager Tennis (2); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Civics Club (1); Freshman Reception Committee (1); Captain Basketball (3); Social Committee of Union (3); Class Treasurer (3); Deutscher Verein (3); Class Baseball (1, 2); Alchemists (3); Delta Tau.

When "Art" came to college he brought a mirror in his pocket. But since then he has ceased to care for his looks, so long as he "Simms" all right.

Norton Moore Williams, ΚΔΡ

Maplewood, New Jersey

Columbia High School; Glee Club (1, 2, 3); Mandolin Club (1, 3); College Quartet (1, 2, 3); Manager Class Football (2); College Band (3); Assistant Business Manager "Campus" (3); Junior Play Committee (3); Sages; Delta Tau.

"Pat" gained fame as composer of song "Cresse." Our all-round musician. Has a regular Montana voice. It's a Butte. Makes his living by trimming the entering classes on second-hand furniture.

KATHERINE BALL, AX

Winchester, New Hampshire

Winchester High School; Banshee; Student Government Council (1); Sextette; Silver Bay Delegate (2); Musical Association (1, 3); French Club (1, 2, 3); Delegate to Intercollegiate Student Government Association at Western Reserve University (3); Junior Play Committee (3); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Civics Club (3); Apollo Club (3); Cast of Junior Play (3).

"Beanie" is an all around peach, ready for anything with a little excitement in it. She even attended a Student Government Convention once, which was going some for "Babe." It is rumored that she may soon pay a visit to her "Uncle Henry" in Florida; and one thing more—she always did like cheese.

ELIZABETH MARY BARRETT, ΦΜΓ

Dalton, Massachusetts

Dalton High School; Musical Association (1); Massachusetts Club; Civics Club.

Beneath Liz's outward brilliancy may be observed a seriousness of thought, as is shown by her question, "How does anyone know when they're in love?" Perhaps this may be accounted for by the fact that she spends a great deal of her time in dreamland.

LOIS SIRENA BODURTHA, ΣΚ

Westfield, Massachusetts

Westfield High School; Deutscher Verein; Massachusetts Club; Civics Club (3); Apollo Club (3).

She lives in constant fear of losing her roommate. It's "Mildred, where are you?" from morning till night. Lois is quite a conversationalist and finds no topic beyond her powers of discourse; but—did you ever hear of her brother who went to Bowdoin? He's a ΔΤ.

Mary Narcissa Bowles

Middlebury, Vermont

Middlebury High School; Deutscher Verein; Home Economics Club (3).

Mary is a demure-looking maiden, but is a good sport for all that. She is a recognized success in the line of Home Economics. Because of her inclination to be a little "sot" in her opinions she is easier to coax than lead.

Louesa Griffing Bullis, ΠΒΦ

Glens Falls, New York

Glens Falls High School; Banshee; Sextette; Class Basketball (1, 2, 3), Captain (3); Membership Committee Y. W. C. A. (2, 3); Silver Bay Delegate (2); Musegahe Club (2); Pan-Hellenic Council (3); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Junior Prom Committee (3); Civics Club (3).

"Buster" seems to be a quiet, demure little girl, but how she delights in surprising people, and, as she says, "kidding them along"! Her favorite pastime is that of receiving letters written on vivid green note paper. Ask her, where from?

Letitia Elizabeth Calhoun, AX

Middlebury, Vermont

Middlebury High School; Sextette; Musical Association (1, 2); Deutscher Verein; Home Economics Club (3).

Here's "Tish"—the little village student. We think she's planning to stump the state for Woman Suffrage some day for she is always saying, "Now listen, girls——" But where can we find a better show of true sporting blood or one who never goes back on a pal?

Isabelle Bridget Carrigan

Pittsford Mills, Vermont

Pittsford High School; Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Civics Club (3); Deutscher Verein (3).

Did you ever hear some one recite in any of your classes way up in High G? That's Isabelle. She always gets away with the recitations and is "never by poor horses led," you may be sure of that. She's a pretty good sort of a guy and can tickle the ivories some, they say.

Jennie Craigue, ΦΜΓ

Springfield, Vermont

Springfield High School; Musical Association (1, 2); Deutscher Verein (3); Apollo Club (3); Civics Club (3).

"Craigie" is a good little sport, particularly since her year spent in Bat. Cot. You should hear her orate on why she likes snow storms. When she first came to college she was a regular gem hunter, specializing in "pearls," but now she is interested in Norwegians.

Helen Beulah Cussons, ΦΜΓ

Swanton, Vermont

Swanton High School; Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Musegahe Club (1, 2, 3); Secretary Student Government (3); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Pan-Hellenic Council (3); Junior Prom Committee (3); Executive Committee Civics Club (3); Apollo Club (3).

H. B. certainly is a hustler and always does her duty no matter when or how. Notwithstanding the fact that she is on all the business committees in college, she still has time for stringing everybody. The most (Pierce)ing fact about her is that she likes U. V. M.

Gertrude Eliza Dratt

Woodford, Virginia

Auburn Academic High School, Auburn, N. Y.

Gertrude may impress the world as a ready-made schoolmarm with her qualities of calm dignity and a New England conscience, but some who know her have doubts as to the duration of such an occupation; at least, 'tis said that her cooking has received the approval of many.

Madalene Katie Foster, ΣK

Walpole, New Hampshire.

Walpole High School; "Campus" Board (3); Civics Club (3).

For such a little body, Madalene has an exceptionally large supply of sarcasm ready for use at any time. If you don't believe it, just give her a chance to display it. In store for her there are A's galore, yet she lives in constant fear of flunking.

Gladys Marion Frost, ΣK

Rutland, Vermont

Rutland High School; Pan-Hellenic Council (3); Musical Association (1, 2, 3); French Club (2); Civics Club (3); Junior Play Committee (3); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Apollo Club (3); Class Secretary (3).

"Big Business" is certainly Frosty's middle name, for she is always in a hurry. But then, she has to be in order to get to all her committee meetings on time. Yet, in spite of all this, Gladys is a true blue friend and may be depended upon every time.

Olive Amy Hall

Westminster West, Vermont

Bellows Falls High School; French Club (1); Civics Club (3).

Ask a High School student of geometry who this is and he'll say, "Triangles." Ask one of the profs and he'll say, "One of my best students." Ask one of the girls and she'll say, "She's a good sport and I like her." Now, what more could you ask? She has only one fault; that is, that she was born with a wheeze instead of a laugh.

Ruth Fay Hall, ΣΚ

North Bennington, Vermont

North Bennington High School; Banshee; Y. W. C. A. Membership Committee (3); Deutscher Verein (3); Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Civics Club (3); Secretary and Treasurer Home Economics Club (3).

Descended from our Pilgrim forefathers we have in Ruth a modern Priscilla, as is shown by her "firmness" of character and worthy ambitions. Her ambition at present is to be found a home for stray cats. Loyalty is another strong phase of Ruth's character, though sometimes it has to be divided between Midd. and Norwich.

Hester Hazel Harding

Middlebury, Vermont

Proctor Academy, Andover, N. H.; Musical Association (1, 2); Musegahe Club (1, 2, 3); Deutscher Verein (3); Civics Club (3); Freshman Banquet Committee (1).

The lady pianist of Pearsons. Her Fort(e) is not, however, piano playing, but Charles Atherton. Ask her her idea of comfort and see what she will tell you—a cozy corner and her favorite book, "Eben Holden."

Alice Gertrude Harriman, AX

Middlebury, Vermont

Middlebury High School; Sextette; Basketball (1, 2, 3), Manager (3); Musegahe Club (2); Deutscher Verein (3); Apollo Club (3); Home Economics Club (3).

Did you ever hear that laugh? Well, that's Harry. You never saw her when she wasn't laughing, did you? But for all her fun she has a pretty good Bean(ie) as is evidenced in her classes. It is rumored that after leaving college she is going to make rolls for the Parker House Company.

Marguerite Elizabeth Heaphy, ΦΜΓ

Lee, Massachusetts

Lee High School; Musical Association (1, 2); Civics Club (3); Junior Play Committee (3); Massachusetts Club; Apollo Club (3).

Marguerite believes in a liberal education as is shown by the fact that she has spent a part of a semester at Smith College. Yet, in spite of her great zeal for study she's out for a good time with the rest of us.

Marina Louise Holmes

Bristol, Connecticut

Bristol High School; French Club (1, 2); Basketball (2, 3); Manager Walking Club (3); Athletic Council (3); Secretary Deutscher Verein (3); Treasurer Civics Club (3).

If there is anything that Marina doesn't know or cannot do, she'll "make a stab at it," and hit it right every time, and she guarantees a full knowledge of the English language. Then, too, she has a gross sense of humor," as we can testify who have been the victims of her practical jokes, for she has a head to contrive, a tongue to persuade and a hand to execute any mischief.

WINIFRED LILLIE JEFFORDS, ΣΚ

Williamstown, Vermont

Montpelier Seminary; Silver Bay Club (1, 2, 3); Civics Club (3).

Winnie is a regular fountain of knowledge and is always ready to share it with others. She has a great supply of patience too, but when she gets mad, —well—she has red hair!

MARJORIE ELIZABETH LEACH, ΠΒΦ

Brattleboro, Vermont.

Brattleboro High School; Banshee; Y. W. C. A. Membership Committee (3); Freshman Banquet Committee (1); Secretary of Tuesday Evening Club (2); Apollo Club (3); Civics Club (3); Cast of Junior Play (3); Home Economics Club (3).

When but a wee Freshman, Marge captured a Wood chuck which was so much to her complete satisfaction that she has kept him ever since. Her greatest fault, that of extolling the virtues of Brattleboro, is easily forgiven.

HELEN ELIZABETH LINNELL, ΦΜΓ

Hyannisport, Massachusetts

Barnstable High School; Banshee; Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Treasurer Athletic Association (2); Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Class Vice-President (3); Y. W. C. A. Membership Committee (3); Deutscher Verein (3); Civics Club (3); Massachusetts Club; Vice-President Athletic Association (3); Apollo Club (3); Cast of Junior Play (3); Student Government Executive Council (2); Basketball (3).

"Buggie"—the pride of the Spanish class. When she is not trying to do (Dew)hirst, she is doing some one else. Her greatest problem is how to spend her choir salary in spite of the fact that she has taken a year's lease of the Social Hall. Yet, Buggie is one fine girl—"she is, you know."

Helen Harriet Lyman

Holyoke, Massachusetts

Granby High School; Deutscher Verein; Home Economics Club (3).

"Oh girls, I've gone and gotten into another scrape! What shall I do? Well, we'll forgive Helen her propensity toward scrapes and her fault of breaking quiet hours by vocal solos to the accompaniment of her mandolin, since she is very affectionate, loving everybody and everything, including dragons.

Marjory Anna Mackenzie, ΣK

Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts

Morristown High School; Peterboro High School; Banshee; Musical Association (1, 3); Treasurer Y. W. C. A. (3); Vice-President Tuesday Evening Club (3); Apollo Club (3); Deutscher Verein (3); Civics Club (3).

Our little Scotch lassie with laughing blue eyes. Marjory's a conglomeration of fun and seriousness and blissfully unconscious of her ability to call forth a laugh. Yet, what a hard worker she is, her greatest accomplishment is that of accomplishing what she undertakes.

Marjorie Bates Phelps, ΣK

Vergennes, Vermont

Vergennes High School; Banshee; Musical Association (1); Class Secretary (2); Assistant Editor-in-Chief Kaleidoscope (3); Civics Club (3); Apollo Club (3); Executive Committee Home Economics Club (3).

"Mar," the incessant mischief maker, almost reached newspaper notoriety once, but it was finally decided not to hand her name over to the police. It is a shame that a girl capable of making such a sympathetic little nurse should lead so wild a life. Also she is the Assistant to our Editor-in-Chief—'nuff said!—(Just look at last year's Editor!)

Doris Atkinson Richards, AX

Dalton, Massachusetts

Dalton High School; Banshee; French Club (1, 2, 3), Secretary (2); Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Second Horace Prize (2); "Campus" Board (3); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Executive Committee Civics Club (3); Cast of Junior Play (3).

The poetess wiz ze Paree accent. She takes kindly to French and especially to the word Pom(me). We wonder why? Although Doris doesn't sing in the collge choir, she likes to carrol now and then.

Violet Elizabeth Richardson, ΦΜΓ

Manchester, Vermont

N. D. H. S. (Chicago); Burr and Burton Seminary; Musical Association (1, 2); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Manager Girls' Tennis (2); "Campus" Board (3); Cercle Francais (1, 2, 3); Deutscher Verein (3); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Executive Committee Civics Club (3); Apollo Club (3); Athletic Council (2).

You can't convince Violet. You don't get a chance. She piles up her arguments so fast you can't even think one in between. If she could only grow another half inch, she'd go to be a soldier in the English army, though, if you'll believe it, she's an Anti-Suff. Violet's a mighty handy person to have around because there's nothing you can think of she can't do.

Anna Marie Rourke, AX

Beverly, Massachusetts

Natick High School, Natick, Mass.; Financial Secretary Tuesday Evening Club (1); French Club (1, 2); Musical Association (1, 2).

Anna's one cry is, "I haven't looked at this lesson, what shall I do?" But usually she fools us by answering in class. Perhaps this can be accounted for by the "Good" company she keeps and her devotion to Natick, Mass., "the only town on the map."

Winona Lee Shattuck

Weston, Vermont

Black River Academy; President Deutscher Verein (3); Apollo Club (3); Civics Club (3).

Here she is, girls! Ask her anything you please and if she hasn't had it in High School or read it somewhere she can "dope it out in time" for you. Try it. All she needs for happiness is a rocking chair, but they do say she's quite fond of farming.

Helen Simms, AX

Gorham, Maine

Gorham High School; Banshee; Class Vice-President (1); Social Board (1); Musical Association (1, 2); Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Junior Prom Committee (3); Silver Bay Delegate (1); Student Government Council (3); Pan-Hellenic Council (3); Cast, "The Tempest"; College Choir (3); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (2, 3); Civics Club (3).

"Simmie" came to college with the one idea of gaining an education, but she soon developed a remarkable interest in "Art" and since then has devoted much of her time to that study. Her one aim is to get to chapel on time to sing in the college choir. But if you ever want anything done—call on Simmie, she's right there.

Huldah May Thomas, AX

Middlebury, Vermont

Middlebury High School; Class Secretary (1); Secretary of Y. W. C. A. (2); Membership Committee (2); Cabinet of Y. W. C. A. (2, 3); Annual Member of Northeastern Field Committee of Y. W. C. A. (3); President of Athletic Association (3); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Manager of Basketball (2); Musical Association (1, 2, 3), Treasurer (2), Secretary (3); Delegate to Silver Bay (2); Third Horace Prize (2); Deutscher Verein (3).

Huldah is a peculiar girl in that she seldom goes out unless there is a gale. She even says she likes (it) Windy. She can furnish information concerning any of the Midd. alumnae at all times, as, indeed, she can on any topic.

FAITH WALKER

Barre, Vermont

Spaulding High School; Banshee; Silver Bay Delegate (1); Musical Association (1, 2); Musegahe Club (2, 3); College Choir (3); Class Basketball (3); Manager Walking Club (2); Athletic Council (2); Engineering Club (1); Civics Club (3); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Apollo Club (3).

Although her name is Walker, Fides excels in running anything and everything from a traverse to a transit. Her life—afternoons in the "drafting room," surveying side-walks, and trips to the town clerk's office.

EVELYN ELNORA WRIGHT

Middlebury, Vermont

Middlebury High School; Home Economics Club (3).

Her broad brow and earnest countenance indicate the student. Latin is her specialty and she spends all her spare time reading Tacitus and other Latin authors. It is supposed that it is from such sources that Evelyn culls ideas for her own original remarks. Anyhow she certainly is all (W)right and as merry as the day is long.

Class History

IT is not our intention to take up the whole book, but limited as we are by the editor, we find it hard to express in so small a compass the resplendent record and illustrious deeds of the most scintillating class which has ever entered Middlebury, so we will only endeavor to give a breviary of a few of the most notable among the multitudinous events of our history.

One might say that we had obtained a considerable notoriety in the annals of old Midd, but it is of that sort which is accorded only to savants, philosophers, wise men in general and great athletes.

We entered in the fall of 1914, the cynosure of all eyes, and the joy of all professors, both past and present. Since then we have garnered honors with such rapidity that we find it impossible to keep record of them. Our feats of athletic prowess have been many, but a cynical world hesitates in its applause and so we pass to more agreeable subjects.

A few of our more brilliant members have found the road to learning too easy, too roseate, and so have departed along narrower and perhaps (?) thornier paths in their endless pursuit of knowledge. So much for the past. The present finds us enthroned on the highest pinnacle of fame, securely anchored on the bedrock of our omnipotence, we bear the mien of monarchs, and with royal magnanimity we ever deign to notice the noxious novitiaty of 1919. Looking to the future we can only say, should succeeding classes follow our noteworthy example, there will no longer be any cut system, or flunk cards in Midd, because they will no longer be needed; and the Phi Beta Kappa society will go broke buying keys.

"Could Washington have been here he must have said,
Hail to the victors, for the rest are dead."

Class History

YES, we are here, the last class to enter Middlebury College in the teens of the 20th Century. We realize that this is honor enough for almost any class, but we are not "any" class; we are the 1919 Class. We know that some of us are timid, and that the rest of us are fresh, while all of us are in a class by ourselves, but nevertheless, we think that we will get by.

And why? Because of the confidence that our past record has given us. We defeated, or more correctly speaking, overwhelmed, the Sophomore Class in the Track Meet, in the Hat Scrap, and in the Basketball Series. The Rope Pull and the Football Game were ties, but the Sophs recognized our "pep" sufficiently to never demand that they be played off. So will it continue to be in the future.

We have fallen in with the boasted "Middlebury Spirit" and, we think, gone the previous classes one better. We found it all strange and new upon our arrival here. The meetings of the other students, old friends, brought the fact home to us that we really were Freshmen here, and made us feel strange and out of place. But that feeling has changed. We have made our friends and chosen our companions; we have observed the rules laid down by the Sophs well — much better, in fact, than their influence or power could compel us to if we were inclined otherwise; we have lived up to the long established ideals of the college and intend to continue to do so, in order that the new class next year may have our splendid example to aid them in becoming as nearly as possible as good an entering class as was our class of '19 this year.

Commencement

On the height of a mountain top he stands,
In a cap and gown he's clad,
He's made manly effort to gain that height,
And his heart is proud and glad.
Yonder, far over the valley
Another peak rises on high,
The sunlight shines upon it
As it rears its head to the sky.
And he seems to see on its summit
A wondrous palace fair,
It flashes and gleams in the sun's bright rays
Like a heap of jewels rare.
This is the home of his ideals,
See how lofty and high it doth rise!
And e'en as he gazes it seems to grow,
Almost to be linked to the skies.
But the valley below is dark and drear,
Will the way lead through joys or sorrow?
He cannot see the path ahead.
Or see what brings the morrow.
Yet with head held high and his heart still glad
Down into the valley he goes
His ideals above him spurring him on
To conquer the fiercest foes.
But see! He looks back!
Does he falter? Oh no.
He has gained a new courage and purpose,
On the peak where he stood such a short time ago
Stands his Alma Mater who has taught him to know
How to withstand temptation, to fight against wrong,
In the face of all perils stand valiant and strong,
And to press ever onward to win fame and honor
For his Middlebury! For his Alma Mater!

—D. A. R., '17

Review of Football Season, 1915

CAPTAIN CONDIT

Considering the football season from the number of victories and defeats it would seem that the season was fairly successful for a college of our size. True, we did not win the Vermont game nor did we lose it, the score being 6—6.

The training camp at Lake Dunmore proved even more popular than in 1914. Next fall all who possibly can get back for the camp should be on hand. The 1915 camp started on September 13th and lasted long enough to get the men in fairly good condition for a long hard schedule, from which Fordham and St. Lawrence had been dropped and Tufts, Stevens Tech. and New Hampshire State had been taken on.

Amherst was played at Amherst for the first game on September 25th and was lost, 14 to 7. Middlebury lacked team work although the individual playing was good. At Springfield on Octoober 2nd Middlebury again met a defeat by a score of 20—6. Stevens was played to a standstill on Porter Field on October 9th, the game resulting in a 0—0 score. On October 16th Tufts beat Middlebury decisively, 34—0, the largest score of the season. Things began to look a little better after Middlebury had defeated New Hampshire State 14—0 on October 23rd at Porter Field. On the 30th R. P. I. was beaten 6—0 at Troy. When the team faced M. A. C. at Amherst on the 6th of November, six regulars were out of the line up. Middlebury was beaten 25—0.

MANAGER HUNTLEY

With the support of the college, in the form of a special train, Norwich was defeated at Intercity Park, Montpelier, on the 13th of November. The result of the Vermont game was a tie, 6—6, but the score, as is often the case, does not decide the game. There wasn't a Middlebury supporter but thought after the game, that Middlebury should not have won. But the score stands a tie and has stood that way for two years.

MANAGER-ELECT TOWNE

The prospects for a winning team next year are bright. Few men will be lost by graduation and with the long list of substitutes the vacancies should be easily filled.

PHILLIP H. CONDIT,
Captain.

Review of the Baseball Season, 1915

CAPTAIN HASKINS

The baseball season of 1915 was a success as far as games won and lost were concerned, for the team won 14 and lost 6. The team stayed in Middlebury during the spring vacation and on the 22nd of April they opened with New York University in New York, which Middlebury defeated 7—6. Fordham, our next opponents, outplayed us in all departments of the game and we lost 9—3, but this was Fordham's tenth game as they had an extended Southern trip.

New Hampshire State was defeated Junior Week 5—3 and St. Lawrence also bowed down to Middlebury in two games by scores of 7—1 and 10—0. After an eleven-inning game with Hamilton, which resulted in a 9—3 victory of Middlebury, the team met severe defeats at Colgate, 17—3, and the following day at Union, 10—0. Although both scores are large the team did not play the best baseball that was possible for them.

The team found itself the following game, for Norwich was badly beaten 17—1 and Colgate also met defeat at the hands of the Blue and White by a score of 5—2.

At Vermont in a loosely played gome in which Middlebury received none of the breaks, we lost 8—6 and also under the same conditions Williams beat us 9—8 in a game which really belonged to Middlebury. Clarkson Tech. resulted in an easy victory for Middlebury, and Norwich also met her second defeat 3—0.

The Commencement game with Vermont was easily theirs for we were outplayed in every respect and were forced to take an 8—3 loss.

Coach Murch's services were invaluable to the team and

MANAGER KIMBALL

it was through his wonderful ability to judge both players and men that the team owed its success. With only three men lost by graduation, with the material of the Freshman class and with Coach Murch again in charge of the team, the outlook for 1916 is very bright.

Review of the 1915 Track Season

CAPTAIN KRON

With the winning of two out of three intercollegiate meets, the breaking of six College records and the creditable showing made at the N. E. I. the season of 1915 goes on record as the most successful track season "Midd." has ever had.

The success of this season was in a large measure due to the untiring efforts of Capt. Kron and Coach Jones.

The advantage of a coach whose business it is to coach track only is shown by the results of the different meets, the number of records broken and the condition of the men during and after the meets.

MANAGER SHEA

Manager Paulsen has arranged a good schedule for this 1916 season, which consists of meets with R. P. I., St. Lawrence and Vermont, besides the Intercollegiates.

MANAGER PAULSEN

Three men have been lost by graduation but with the unusual amount of good material in the Freshman class and the advantage of having Coach Holmes, the team this season has every prospect of being the best had.

Gym Team

THIS year realized the organization of Middlebury's first gym team. The purpose of those most interested in organizing the team was to bring to light and develop the abundance of good material in college, and to launch Middlebury into the field of intercollegiate competition in this sport. To accomplish this purpose it was recognized that a joint exhibition rather than a competitive meet must be held the first year, in order to arouse greater interest and to illustrate to our men the nature of the work expected of an experienced and well trained gymnastic team, before we could enter into actual competition with the gymnasts of other colleges. The exhibition given jointly by Middlebury and Amherst on March 11th was the result. The concensus of opinion after the meet, was that the exhibition given by the Middlebury gymnasts was very nearly on a par with that given by the more experienced Amherst men.

Losing but two men this year, leaves a nucleus about which it is the expectation that one of the best gym teams in New England will be developed. Next year it is planned to hold two actual meets, and eventually it is hoped that men sufficiently expert will be developed to bring Middlebury honors in the Intercollegiate Championships.

Editorial

WE HAVE, especially in the last year or two, heard considerable favorable discussion in regard to recognizing basketball as a varsity activity.

Certainly our interclass contests have developed much fine material, and there is not a doubt but that we could have a varsity team that would rank in the same class with those of other colleges which have an even larger field from which to draw. Our peculiar disadvantage lies in the expense of getting other college teams to come here for games, as we are at a considerable distance from most of our rivals. This rule, however, does not apply to our Vermont neighbors, Norwich and U. V. M., and it really seems as though a triangular league with these two colleges in basketball, as in baseball and football, would do much to fill up the gap between the seasons of these two other sports.

TENNIS has never enjoyed recognition as an intercollegiate sport at Middlebury although interest has been gained in the past two years. By the action of the Athletic Council, tennis has been placed on a stipulated budget for the maintenance of the courts and the paying of guarantees to visiting teams. Candidates for the tennis team are working under the direction of Prof. Bonney and with the added material from the Freshman class the prospects look bright for a representative team of which the college will be proud.

TENNIS and basketball have been the chief athletic activities of the Women's College this year. "M's" were awarded to the members of the present Senior basketball team who have played in three-fourths of the regular games for three years.

The tennis team defeated the women's tennis team of the University of Vermont by a score of 4-3 sets in a match held at Burlington.

A silver cup was given by Miss Throop to the Athletic Association to be awarded annually and to be held for one year by the winner of the inter-class championship.

College Debating

IN THE spring of 1914 interest in debating at Middlebury was greatly heightened by the formation of a state debating league. Through the activity of this league a triangular debate was arranged between Middlebury, University of Vermont, and Norwich, for that spring, with the result that Middlebury came out of the conflict with a victory over each of the other institutions. Last year an attempt was made to arrange a similar contest but Norwich refused to participate and we therefore had to be content with a single debate with University of Vermont. This time the tables were turned and the decision went to the Burlington aggregation, due, at least in part, to lack of preparation on the part of our team.

Norwich has failed to enter the field again this year and as a result the entire energy of the debating organization is being expended in a determined effort to win the "rubber" contest with U. V. M., which takes place in the McCullough Gymnasium the last week in April. The team, as picked early in March, is composed of Floyd, '16, Edmunds, '17, and Buffum, '18, with Miller, '17, acting as alternate. Professors Wetherell, Cunningham, Abbott, and Morgan, are doing the coaching and under their able leadership the team is rapidly getting into shape and we feel quite confident of the result when the clash comes.

One of the big problems in connection with the debating here has been to find men of ability who are willing to give the immense amount of time which is required to prepare properly for inter-collegiate debating. Professor Cunningham has gone a long way towards solving this problem this year by offering a course in argumentation and debate, for which college credit is given. Plans are now being discussed, which it is to be hoped will be put into force next year, whereby all who go out for debating will receive college credit, additional credit being given to those who secure places on the "varsity" team. This would, of course, necessitate regular hours and required attendance at the try-outs, but the indications are that these details can be satisfactorily worked out.

Taking everything into consideration the prospects for debating in Middlebury look exceptionally bright and there is no reason why the interest in it cannot be stimulated until debating shall occupy its proper place as the major winter activity of the college. This would not only mean additional honor for our college but would result in giving to a much larger number of students the training in public speaking which debating offers and in which far too many college graduates are sadly lacking.

Answers to Queries

Austin, '16.—They say an effective way to remember wife's errands is to tie a string around the finger.

Mott, '16.—A very good hair dye can be bought at Sheldon's.

Aylward, '16.—You can get a lunch put up at Kidder's Sunday nights so you can eat it in Pearsons and so reserve the little Social Hall.

Edmunds, '16.—Lemon juice is said to bleach the skin.

Coates, '17.—We consider your business transaction a very good diehl.

Paulsen, '16.—We were very glad to figure it up for you. You would save 10,687 steps each week if you used the path up across the hill by the gym instead of going around.

Ross, '16.—Pebeco is said to be very good.

Lamere, '16.—We do not know any cures for persons with hobbies.

Swoboda, '19.—Nobody sleeps in the entry at Pearsons Hall. We should suggest your staying there if you wish to be on hand first thing.

Gale, '16.—Yes, in deed, walking is a very healthful exercise.

Adams, '16.—We would suggest that you retire immediately after returning from Pearsons. The walk in the air is said to be very conducive to sleep.

Floyd, '16.—We have learned that the Addison will give a discount on 20 meals if engaged ahead.

Reynolds, '17.—They say rolling down hill is an effective way to reduce. Try Chipman.

Grant, '17.—Have you tried sage to make the hair grow?

Dewhirst, '17.—We fear that there is no hope for you. Your communication sounded as if you had gone Buggy.

Horsford, '17.—We should think from your account that you would make a very good Fisher man.

Hollister, '17.—You were quite Wright to engage so many dances with the belle of the ball.

Leslie Shedd, '19.—It really does not hurt you to have your picture taken. We cannot make any statement as to the effect on the Camera.

Hubbard, '17.—We do not know any effective cure for lonesomeness. We would suggest that you inquire at Pearsons Hall or Battle Cottage.

Dartley, '17.—A small note book which can be carried in the pocket is a very good thing when one has "orders" to remember.

Butterfield, '17.—Why don't you buy a typewriter. Letters can be written much more rapidly that way.

Successful Baseball Season

This past season has been a very successful one for the blue and white, the team not having lost a single game.

Games were played with the following colleges: Harvard, Yale, Brown University, Dartmouth, Williams, Syracuse University.

A New Course Open to Students

Prof. Abbot announces a new course without any library reading.

This course will be conducted by him and by Prof. Morgan together.

Prize Competition

A ride in Prexy's Ford for the one who gets nearest correct answers.

He rolls his pencil 'tween his hands
And sits up in his seat
And then he fixes up his cards
In a little pile so neat.
And then he slides down in his seat
And looks at you with scorn
If you don't know your lesson,
And you wish you'd ne'er been born.
But, Oh! how good to hear those words
Which come at last to you,
"You — you don't seem to have grasped the point,
That will — that will — that will do."

He sits away back in his chair
And listens to you read
And when you finish, then he'll say
"That's good, that's good indeed.
But just one moment to review
A few verb forms and pronouns too
And, by the way, in Spain you know
It's the custom to do so and so."
And if you know things at all half way
"Buen, buen, that's good," he'll say
And if you don't he'll look real vexed
And say, "If you took pains to look that's in the text."

He passes out some outlines,
Then he sends you the board,
You then recite upon the text
And conjugate a verb.
Then once more to the board you go,
Come back, recite on what you know
'Bout idioms, then a rule of two
On syntax; next time book reports are due.
The rest of the hour you take a test,
In his class you don't get much rest.

"Do you call that lesson long?
This isn't a primary school, you know.
If you can show me I am wrong
Why, straight to farming I will go.

Only fifty pages which must be read,
Then a couple hundred suggested,
Two hundred fifty pages reading all said,
And to leave your leisure unmolested,
Only half a chapter (10 pages) of text,
Learn population of each U. S. city,
Take Europe, Asia and Africa next,
The less geography known, more's the pity."

He's always trying to connect
The things we daily see at home
With things the ancients used to use
In the good old days of Greece and Rome
And so he keeps a little room
All filled with relics and remains
With which he keeps your spirits up
When your enthusiasm wanes.
There's every kind of lamp and vase
And harps from which no sweet strains come,
Augustus' toga, Nero's wig
And Julius Caesar's chewing gum.

He comes around, inspects your work
And says, "Now just what is that, Miss?
And just what have you here in this?"
And if that thing you cannot do
Then he looks o'er his specks at you.
"You must get wise to these things right away.
That's the secret of success," he'll say.

Limericks

A young man of the college named Breeze,
Weighed down by B.A.'s and M.D.'s,
Collapsed from the strain.
Said the doctors "'Tis plain
You are killing yourself by degrees."

An A. B. who was also C. D.,
And of money who hadn't N. E.
Said, "I'll write an S. A.
On the 'Age of D. K.'
And I'll sell it for cash, don't U. C.?"

Joaks?

In German 3.
Herr Davison—"Fraulein N——, give a synonym for 'Gemahl.' "
Miss N—— —"Why—er—Diener."

Damsel dancing with Brick Cowles—"My, you would be a splendid flesh reducer!"

In Horace class.
Betty—"Can someone locate Rhodes? Ah, yes, Mr. S——. Where is Rhodes- Yes, that's right. Now what is Rhodes noted for?"
Mr. S—— —"Why—er, Rhodes scholarship."

Gorton (to bored listener)—"Yes, I suffer a great deal, Paine is my middle name."

Miss Graham in Home Economics class—"Will someone please tell me the correct time?"
Miss Lyman, hastily—"It is one minute after twenty-five minutes after nine."

In Ped. 2.
Prof. MacF—"Miss K——k, describe the gentleman who visited the class at the last recitation."
Miss K——k—"He wore a soft hat and carried an umbrella."

Miss P——y, referring to Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night"—"This is a good 1916 play. The women seem to do most of the love-making."

Professor Howard in Ped. class, comparing the activities of work and play—"Miss Calhoun, if I saw you in the kitchen wearing a big apron could I tell whether you were working or playing?"
Miss C——, decidedly—"I'd be working."

MacFarland (in Ped. 6)—"Well, you often have to ask that kind of question to save your face—and as I look around they all seem worth saving—without any exception, Grant."

German 3. Reuther translating.—"The horse looked at me as though to say, 'What is that empty space?' "

Hokus—"Do you think the colleges turn out the best men?"
Pokus—"Sure, I was turned out in my Freshman year."—Ex.

From the Diary of Ima M. Coed

1913-1914

May 25. Have decided to go to Middlebury. Don't know much about it, but it's a co-ed school, sounds like fun.

June 10. I'm to be admitted to Middlebury all right. My certificates are all right so I won't have to take any exams. I'm glad of that. The letter says I'm to live at Halpin's, 36 College St. I wonder what it's like.

Sept. 14. My trunk went to-day. My, I'm excited. Bob came over to say "Good-by" tonight. I like Bob but I expect I'll meet some nice boys at Middlebury. He's going to Cornell. He wants me to write to him.

Sept. 15. Well, I'm in Middlebury. 'Twas pretty hard when it came to saying "Good-by" to mother, but anyway, I'm here. Two girls met me at the station, awful nice girls, showed me where to go and said they'd come to see me. Mrs. Halpin had to telephone "over across" as she said, before she'd let me in. She wasn't sure I belonged there. I have a nice room. I think I'm going to like it here. My! I'm lonesome to-night though! Nobody else has arrived yet.

Sept. 16. Walked around the place before breakfast to see what it was like. Didn't meet a single soul. It's a pretty place all right. Had a letter from Bob so soon. He's a pretty good scout after all. My roommate came tonight. She hasn't said much yet but I guess I'll like her. Most all the other girls are here now. We eat at Battell Cottage where lots of girls stay. I like it here though. There are only nine of us. I bet we'll have a good time. They had a reception for the Freshman girls at Pearsons tonight. An upper-class girl came after me. I liked her a lot. She introduced me to all the girls. We sang Middlebury songs and cheered. It was great fun. The girls are all perfectly lovely.

Sept. 17. We all registered today. An awfully nice upper-class girl took me around with her. I would have gotten lost if she hadn't. Such a lot of red tape, but now I'm a real student. Saw lots of fellows today. Some of them look real nice. The Freshman boys wear awful little green caps with pink buttons on them. Wonder what they'll do to the girls.

Sept. 18. I guess I found out. That girl they call Bobby came over here today with some little bells on green ribbons and we've got to wear them around our necks. She gave us big green papers with rules on them, too.

Sept. 19. The professors don't like the bells very well. It's fun to wiggle around in your seat and make them jingle. I haven't saluted a Sophomore all day. My! it's fun not to. They glare so. Went across the street so I wouldn't meet that Bobby though.

Sept. 20. Professor Royce, the music professor, gave a concert tonight in the Music Hall. I enjoyed it immensely. Our bells played little interludes though, which some people didn't appreciate.

Sept. 21. Went to church today. Everybody has to go to church up here. Most of the students go to the Congregational Church. It's an old-fashioned church with a gallery. All the students sit up there, the fellows on one side and the girls opposite. The fellows didn't seem to pay attention to the sermon very well. A brown dog came too and sat on the top step of the gallery.

Sept. 22. Went into the Senior Philosophy class today by mistake. And after I had made up my mind not to show I was a Freshman! They all laughed too.

Sept. 26. Hazing came tonight. Right after supper Soph. girls came after each of us. Mine made me wear a green paper dress and when I walked I had to go three steps one way, and three another. Had to make a speech on the virtues of the Sophomore class. It was lots of fun. They gave us eats afterwards, too. And we don't have to wear the bells any more.

Sept. 27. Lots of things happened today. In the afternoon was the Hat Scrap. I never saw one before. Guess I don't want to go next year. They all pile on top of each other so. But did I say '17 won? We did. '17 won. Hurrah for us! Our class will show them, I guess.

Tonight was the Gymnasium reception. I went with a Senior. She didn't know any fellows. I met all the faculty and just one man. He came home with me afterwards. It was fun to see other people going around, though, and they had a splendid program and awfully good things to eat. Oh! It's great to go to College.

Sept. 29. Went to movies.

Sept. 30. The Sophomores brought up some Freshman men to haze tonight. They made them do stunts for us and sing.

Oct. 4. We had our class meeting today. President Thomas spoke to us and asked us not to have our banquet until second semester. He's just splendid. I guess nobody would think of doing anything he didn't want them to. Our colors are purple and white.

Oct. 7. Well, I've found out at last who Charlie Baker is. He's Prof. Wright. I've been looking for him ever since I came. His name is Charles Baker Wright and they call him Charlie Baker.

Oct. 8. Oh! We had such a good time today! The Junior girls took the Freshman girls for a Bacon Bat. I didn't know what a Bacon Bat was, but it was some fun. We all went down by the Creek and the Juniors built big fires and cooked bacon on sticks over them. My! Things tasted good. We sang Middlebury songs around the dying fire just as the sun was sinking in the west. The beautiful colors were reflected in the water and all was still except for the sweet voices of the girls singing "Middlebury." We sang all the way home and stopped at all the Professors' houses and cheered for them. I like the Junior girls lots.

Oct. 10. Student Government meeting in the Hemicycle today. We all signed the Constitution. I think the rules are very reasonable and fair.

Oct. 19. Sunday again. Went to walk up on Chipman with a Junior I met at the last dance. It's an awfully nice place to walk. Guess everybody around here thinks so because we met couples everywhere up there. He was a peach. He's asked me to go to the movies Tuesday, too.

Oct. 20. Got a whole box of chestnuts and a Cornell banner from Bob today. I haven't written to him since he wrote before either. Next Sunday afternoon I'll stay in and write to him.

Oct. 21. Movies were good tonight. That Junior is awfully nice.

Oct. 22. The Adirondacks were all covered with snow this morning. They certainly are beautiful. I can see them from my window. Guess winter is coming.

Oct. 25. We can't Tango any more. The faculty don't like it.

Oct. 26. One of the girls entertained a man in the parlor this afternoon and we all helped. Dressed up a broom like a girl, hung it down over the banister and made it talk. Took some little leather things off the mattress for eyes. Glad Mrs. Halpin wasn't around.

Oct. 28. Walked up from downtown with Bobbie today. Why, she's awfully nice. I like her a lot. And we Freshman girls swore we'd never speak to her.

Oct. 29. Found our rooms stacked when we came back from supper. Don't care. We can do it next year.

Nov. 1. Charter Day exercises in the Gym. The speech was 38 pages long. We watched him turn them over. The part about the tiger was great, though.

Midd. played St. Anselms today. Won, too, 22-6, easy victory.

Oh! and the Freshman Parade was today, too. They all looked so funny. One fellow rode on a donkey and it said, "We are brothers" on him.

Nov. 2. We raised Cain after 10:30 tonight and Mrs. H. came up and squelched us. We were all running around when we suddenly heard, "Young Ladies! Young Ladies! We are trying to sleep below." I stepped on the squeaky board in front of my door just then and it made an awful noise and the girls all giggled. Guess she was pretty mad.

Nov. 9. Sunday, so went walking as usual. We went up to Beldens. It's an awfully pretty place.

Nov. 10. The Halpinites had a midnight feed. Didn't get caught either in spite of squeaky doors. Ham sandwiches, pickles, chocolate pie, ginger ale and fudge. I always thought midnight feeds were great to read about, but, believe me, the real thing is better.

Nov. 22. Concert in the Gym. Mrs. Halpin gave us a swell feed when we came home. It was just great. She's pretty good to us, I think, when we do cut up so.

Nov. 25. Home today for Thanksgiving. It seemed pretty good to get home again. Bob is home from Cornell. He met me at the station. I had forgotten how good-looking he is.

Nov. 26. Turkey. Bob and I went for a sleighride this afternoon. He hasn't changed a bit.

Nov. 29. Said "Good-by" to Bob.

Nov. 30. Back again in Midd. The frolic is over and we try to settle down to work again.

Dec. 3. Mid-Semester marks come out today. Got 3 A's and 2 B's.

Dec. 6. Pearsons Hall man dance. Lots of people there. Good time as usual. Met an awfully cute Sophomore fellow that I'd never seen before.

Dec. 7. Gee! We hid one of the fellow's rubbers who came up to call and he wore home Mrs. Halpin's. Thought they were his.

Dec. 12. Sophomore Hop. Had a wonderful time. The music was good. The College Orchestra played. Wish I didn't have to go to classes in the morning.

Dec. 14. Prexy had a college service in the Gym. this afternoon. He preached a splendid sermon. Wish they would have them oftener.

Dec. 22. Home again for Christmas.

Jan. 5. Oh! I had such a good time that I hate to start in work again. Bob and I went skating, snow-shoeing, sleigh-riding and to dances. I don't believe I want to go out up here any more. I must write to him tomorrow.

Jan. 13. Oh! It's cold in Vermont. They say it was 40 degrees below by the pulp mill this morning. It was bad enough at Halpin's. Some of the girls froze their noses just going to Chapel.

Jan. 19. Had a test in Solid Geom. today, first in a series of three which are to cover the whole book. Couldn't finish it. 'Twas too long. Have to do better next time.

Jan. 21. I'm tired tonight. Second Math. test today. Went to movies last night so had to study after I came in. Went through Books III and IV. Didn't think anything about the time, looked up and it was 5:00 A. M. Flunked the test. Oh, shucks! Such is life in a college town anyway.

Jan. 23. Last Math. test, thank goodness. Got 100 on that one. It's lucky for me, I guess.

Jan. 24. Went to a dance in the Gym. Everybody ragged to beat the band.

Jan. 25. Miss Throop explained what dances we can do, one-step, hesitation and Boston, no dips.

Jan. 26. Went to church as usual. The fellows sang all the hymns one note behind the others and dragged out the 'Amens' on the end and sang fancy notes in between.

Jan. 30. No more time to write in this. Exams. began today.

Feb. 4. Exams. all over. Don't know whether I got by or not, though.

Feb. 12. Pa White told us the story of a 'little onion in the soup.'

Feb. 18. Went snow-shoeing today with Billy. He's lots of fun.

Feb. 26. Minstrel Show in the Town Hall. It was splendid. Johnny Reynolds was awful funny. He wore a bathrobe with big stripes and carried a bunch of celery.

Mar. 5. Went Faculty calling. Called on Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Burrage, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Cuny and Mrs. Cady. They are all very charming women.

Mar. 25. Middlebury had a debate with U. V. M. Midd. won of course. When it comes to brains we can show them. We danced afterwards.

Mar. 29. Went to French Club at Prof. Robinson's. Had an awfully good time. Played games in French and he read to us. He's a splendid reader. Mrs. Robby can certainly make good cake. She's dear anyway.

Apr. 3. Got a cut in Pa White's Latin. Event for history. They say it never happened before.

Apr. 7. Home for Easter. Billy went to the train with me. Bob met me at the train. He's a classy kid all right.

Apr. 15. Now for a spring in Midd., that I've heard so much about.

Apr. 17. Prof. Royce of Harvard, the father of our Professor Royce, lectured on Philosophy in the Music Hall. It was very interesting indeed. Glad I went.

Apr. 22. Band Dance. Had the best time this year. The fellows here are certainly good fun.

May 7. Junior Week. Midd—U. V. M. track meet today. We lost, but Casey Jones couldn't run; we'll show them yet.

May 8. Prom. The Gym. looked wonderful decorated in brown and gold, the Junior colors.

May 9. Oh! I'm excited. We beat U. V. M. Do you hear, you old diary? We beat U. V. M. They're having a snake dance and a big bonfire downtown now. At the beginning of the first half of the ninth it was V., 2, M., 0. Then Zeb made a hit, Triggs walked, Joe Lamere hit and then Tommy. Oh! it was grand. Just like you read about in books. You should have seen Gramp Harrington jump up and down. M., 3, V., 2. Gee! that looks good.

The play was tonight. It was splendid, too. Oh, such a wonderful day!

June 6. Burlesque Track meet between the Castle Walkers and Mexican Athletes. Oh, it was funny! Casey Jones was time-keeper and he was a scream.

June 11. Exams. begin today.

June 18. Freshman year over? It doesn't seem possible. Au Revoir, Old Midd. It has certainly been a good year.

1914-1915

Sept. 23. Hurrah for the Sophomores! Arrived today. Got a room in Pearsons. That's luck, I call it. Seemed good to see the old friends again. Y. W. C. A. reception tonight. How different it seemed from last year.

Sept. 24. Registered, Logic, Chem., French, Latin and German. Billy came up tonight.

Sept. 28. Gave out rules to Freshmen. They have to wear big green bows around their left arms and courtesy to us. Gee! it's fun.

Sept. 29. Made a Freshman mend for me today. She was awful fresh about it, too. She'd better look out, I say.

Sept. 30. Gym. reception. My roommate and I took a Freshman. Guess she met some fellows all right. We introduced her to everybody there.

Oct. 1. Clyde gave the girls a corn roast out back of Pearsons. Never tasted anything so good. Three cheers for Clyde!

Oct. 2. Hat Scrap this afternoon. I did go again after all. We won again, too. Oh, we are the best class here all right.

Oct. 9. Stunt night for the Freshmen. We had them all over creation before we brought them into the Gym. I didn't know how much fun it would be to make them do stunts. It's great being a Sophomore.

Oct. 24. My wife and I went to the St. Lawrence game. Midd. won 21-7. First Gym. dance. Went with Billy. Met a lot of cute Freshman men. One of them asked me to go to the movies Tuesday.

Oct. 26. Got a smile off from a swell Freshman in the library today.

Oct. 27. Made shirts for the soldiers. Gee! I'm glad I don't have to wear them. They're thick enough so they won't catch cold all right.

Oct. 31. Springfield Training School game. They won 28-7 but they didn't get it as easily as they might have. They said so, too. Freshman Parade this afternoon. About the same as usual. Gold Dust Twins, Babies, etc. One fellow was fixed up to look like Davy. So lifelike a Freshman really thought it was he. Charter Day Exercises. They were going to dance afterwards and Billy was going to introduce some of the Springfield men to us, but the speeches were so long they couldn't. Hang it! some of them were awfully cute, too.

Nov. 12. Stacked Freshmen's rooms. It was a circus. We did it up brown.

Nov. 21. Went to Burlington to the football game with U. V. M. Midd had a special train. It was great sport. It was pretty cold and there was snow on the ground, but you couldn't freeze our ardor. 0—0. We'll beat them yet, though.

Nov. 24. Faculty play in the Gym. Billy Burrage lost his wig off. It was a scream.

Nov. 25. Sophomore Hop. Considering that it was our class hop of course it was perfect. Why not?

Nov. 26. Can't go home for Thanksgiving any more. It was not so bad staying here as I thought. Mrs. Mills gave us a splendid dinner. After dinner we danced in the Social Hall and sang. Some were kind of homesick at night, though.

Dec. 9. Men's Fraternity Pledge Day and we got a holiday.

Dec. 12. I've done nothing today but study German. Davy is certainly not bashful about giving out the lessons. You have to hand it to him. He's a corking teacher, though. I've learned more in three months than in two years in H. S. He's not afraid to work himself either. That's what makes you more willing to work for him. Oh! He's a good scout if he does hand out the work.

Dec. 18. Home for Christmas vacation. Got to take home a German book for outside reading, though.

Jan. 4. Back once more. Bob wasn't home this time. He went to New York for the holidays. Only three weeks to Mid-Years, Gee!

Jan. 10. Prexy has a Sunday Chapel service in the afternoons. We can go to church or to that. Who wouldn't rather hear Prexy preach any day?

Jan. 29. Exams. again. Can't go away afterwards this time. Have one the very last day.

Feb. 5. Safely through another set. Right into the next semester's work already.

Feb. 20. The Ben Greet Players gave "As You Like It" in the Town Hall. The whole college went. It was splendid. Hope I can see them again sometime.

Mar. 8. 'Penelope' and the third floor scrape. Miss Throop was worried about the racket third floor made. Thought we were roller-skating in the hall and it was only 'Penelope' taken out of the garage under the radiator.

Mar. 12. Middlebury women present "The Tempest." Miss Throop can't be praised enough for the work she has done. It was wonderful. The girls all were perfectly splendid. Norton and Bozzie were a scream. I'll never forget them. Pat, Anne and Cutler were swell too.

Mar. 19. Phi Beta Kappa Initiation. Course I know it isn't the custom to take in under-classmen. Still I should think they might have told me to expect it anytime.

Mar. 23. We started our Horace Note Books today. Looks like work, but I guess I'll like it.

Mar. 27. Saw a movie taken at Cornell tonight. It brought back memories that haunt all right. Haven't seen Bob for an age. Guess Billy's sore, too. Haven't seen him for a week. I should worry.

Apr. 10. Made up with Billy. Went to the dance with him tonight. Seemed good to go to a dance again. There hasn't been one for a long time and last year we had them all the time.

Apr. 13. Home for Easter. Good to get home to my mother again, I can tell you. Bob's going to be here for the week end.

April 28. Worked all afternoon and then had to sit up till 2 working on Horace notebook, due tomorrow. Anyway I guess Betty will be pleased when he sees those Grape Nuts and Ivory Soap advertisements I found. Gee! they're great.

May 1. Ball game with Colgate. Pouring rain. Mud three feet deep. Sat on the bleachers and got soaked. We won though and it was great sport all the same. Wouldn't have missed it for anything. 5—3, 6 innings.

May 8. Junior Week. We won everything so far, even if it has rained most of the time. Hurrah for Midd! Went to the Prom. Swell time. Good music, and good eats. The Gym. looked great.

May 9. Some excitement today. Chemistry Building almost burned up. It started up on the third floor in the store room. The College fellows were right on hand to fight it and it didn't do as much damage as it might have. Play tonight. Awfully good. Wish Junior week came often.

May 12. Game with St. Anselms. Midd. won, 8—2. Who says we can't play ball?

May 30. College Quartet came up and serenaded us tonight. It sounded great. I love to hear the fellows sing. They sang "Willie had a Purple Monkey" as usual.

May 31. Holiday. Almost everybody went out to Lake Dunmore or somewhere but a few of us were here. We went down by the creek for a Bacon Bat and had a corking time.

June 4. Went for a walk down by the pulp mill bridge with Billy.

June 6. Chosen for a member of the KALEIDOSCOPE Board. I'll like that I think.

June 10. Exams. again.

June 17. All over. Seems great to stick around here and do just as you please.

June 20. I never saw such a mob around here. Everybody is back I guess. They say it's the biggest Commencement ever.

The Ben Greet Players played "Twelfth night" and Mid-Summer Night's Dream." They were splendid. Couldn't have them out of doors as planned, though, on account of rain.

June 21. Class Day. Marched in the Daisy Parade. Went to speaking contest in the evening. The speaking was very good indeed.

June 23. Graduation in the Congregational Church. Didn't get packed up in time to hear all of it. Had to send three boxes after my trunk was packed and then I couldn't shut up my bag. Halfway through anyway.

1915-1916

Sept. 23. Came back to Midd. today. Everything the same as ever. I feel pretty big being an upper classman. Those little Sophomores are so funny running around keeping track of the Freshmen.

Sept. 24. Settled today. My wife and I are going to try it another year. We have a new dean this year. Her name is Eleanor Ross. Everybody's crazy about her already. I'm glad I've got two more years here.

Sept. 25. Prof. Royce's concert in Music Hall, very good as usual.

Sept. 26. Took a Freshman to church today.

Oct. 2. Springfield Training School 14, Midd. 0. Never mind, it was the first game. Better luck next time.

Oct. 6. We Juniors take the Freshmen for a Bacon Bat down by the creek. It's a splendid custom well worth keeping up. It was a glorious evening. Guess the Freshmen enjoyed it.

Oct. 7. Gym. reception. Got a Freshman all my own to take this time. Had a good time as usual.

Oct. 9. Stevens Institute of Technology—Midd., 0—0. Freshman Parade. Dance in the Gym. Went with Billy.

Oct. 15. Stunt night for the Freshmen. Seemed queer just to look on. Was kind of sorry I wasn't a Sophomore.

Oct. 28. Went up on Chipman for a walk today. Same old place.

Oct. 31. We all went to Gov. Stewart's funeral. He was certainly a "grand old man."

Nov. 2. Charter Night. Better than usual this time. Guess Mac. must have been some soldier. He gave a splendid talk on Patriotism. though.

Nov. 6. Play Mass. Aggies at Amherst. I won't write down the score. They have a wonderful team this year anyway.

Nov. 12. Went for a Bacon Bat with my wife and Billy and Tom. Lots of fun.

Nov. 13. Special train took most of the College to Montpelier to play Norwich. It was a circus. Midd. won 19—13 of course. The Norwich fellows looked swell in their uniforms. A couple of them gave megaphones to my wife and I. The train was late coming back but we had lots of fun in the stations. The fellows all had tin horns and cheered.

Nov. 19. The girls have a rally to get up spirit for the U. V. M. game. "Conducive to Pep." We practice songs and cheers after chapel every morning. Who says Middlebury hasn't any spirit?

Nov. 20. The great day came. We didn't win but neither did they. We put up a better game than they did, though. Such a mob as came down from there. Almost all the College came, I guess. Oh! It was exciting. Some of the girls wore white and the rest dark clothes and the ones in white sat to form a "M" on the grand stand.

Dance after supper in the Gym. Had a swell time. Some day!

Nov. 25. Thanksgiving at Midd. again. We had a splendid dinner. Some of us went over and inspected the new dormitory and the new chapel after dinner. They are coming along fine. They are a great improvement to Midd.

Dec. 6. Civics Club was started among the women today. I guess Middlebury is progressive all right. Prof. Wetherell gave a splendid talk. It's going to be a Suffrage Club by and by.

Dec. 11. Went to a dance with Billy.

Dec. 18. Home for Christmas. Bob's home this time. He's coming over to see me tomorrow.

Dec. 24. Went to the theatre last night with Bob. He wants me to wear his fraternity pin. Don't know about that.

Jan. 3. Back again to Midd. Billy met me. Guess it's just as well I'm not wearing Bob's pin.

Jan. 4. The chimes rang in the new chapel. Hurrah for the new Middlebury!

Jan. 11. Went to movies tonight.

Jan. 28. Mid-years begun.

Feb. 4. All over. Not so bad this time. Guess I must be getting brilliant. The Profs. don't seem to recognize it, though.

Feb. 7. New cut system explained. Don't believe I like it very well but I guess it will be a good thing.

Feb. 17. It's cold, cold winter. 10 below as we go to chapel. Didn't get any valentine. Guess I've grown up.

Mar. 1. Prof. Royce read "Androcles and the Lion." Gee! He's great. I never laughed so in my life. It's worth a good deal to hear him roar.

Mar. 11. Gym. meet with Amherst. Who said we were going to be way outclassed? Nothing doing. Had to sit up late tonight to get my KALEIDOSCOPE work done as it is all due tomorrow. Seems good to have that out of the way. It was fun, though.

A FAREWELL GLIMPSE

Acknowledgments

THE EDITOR of the KALEIDOSCOPE, 1917, wishes to take this opportunity of expressing his thanks to all who have in any way contributed to the book. Especial mention should be made of

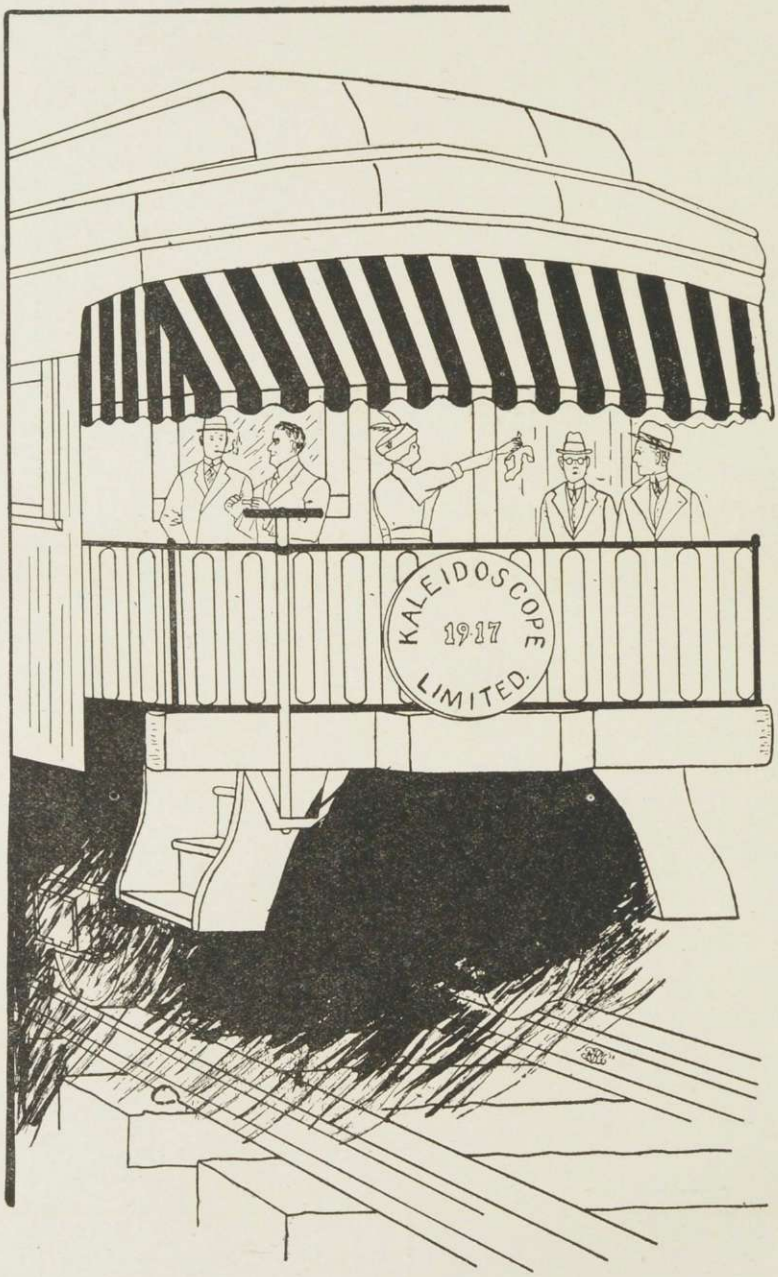
The loyal co-operation and support of the KALEIDOSCOPE Board.

The painstaking efforts and pleasing artistic effects of Miss Sibley and Mr. Olsen.

The patient and faithful work of the Jacksons on the photographs, the Junior Class section in particular.

The courteous co-operation of The Tuttle Company in the publishing of the book.

The support of the advertisers who aid greatly in financing the book.



THE END.

POLITENESS RETURNED.—A few days after a farmer had sold a pig to a neighbor, he chanced to pass his place and saw his little boy sitting on the edge of the pig-pen, watching its new occupant.

"How d'ye do, Johnny," said he, "How's your pig to-day?"

"Oh, pretty well, thank you," replied the boy. "How's all your folks?"

Middlebury College

MIDDLEBURY'S RECORD

Middlebury College was founded in 1800. During her first century she sent out 1,686 graduates; 543 of these were clergymen, including 71 missionaries. An exceptionally large proportion became teachers, of whom 106 were professors in Colleges or Theological Seminaries, and 32 became college presidents. She graduated in that time 400 lawyers, including over 50 judges of courts. Fifteen of her alumni have been members of Congress, and nine, Governors of States or Territories. It is Middlebury's boast that, in proportion to her size and the means at her command, no American college has made a nobler record.

COURSES OF STUDY

The old classical course has given the college a reputation for a century in the liberal studies that make men. It is the foundation of all that is valuable in a college education. By the recent extension of the curriculum the student is enabled, through wise selection, to secure not only broad, cultural training, but also preparation for further professional studies, for business, or for teaching. There are abundant opportunities for college graduates in business. Many of the positions do not require technically trained men. Large corporations write to us every year for promising men, graduates of the regular courses. The college has a strong department for the training of teachers. Students intending to take up the study of law, medicine or theology will find courses fundamental to those professions. By the introduction of a Department of Drawing and Surveying, Middlebury College is able to secure for its graduates two years' advanced standing in the best technical colleges. By this means they receive the general discipline and culture of college in but little more time and with slightly more expense than if they proceeded directly from the academy to the school of engineering.

RECENT PROGRESS

Without departure from the traditions of the New England small college, additions to the buildings, equipment, courses, and instructing staff have been made in the few years past, which add materially to the advantages offered to the students. Among the recent additions to the plant are the following: The McCullough Gymnasium, the Hall of Chemistry, the Central Heating Plant, Porter Athletic Field with its grand stand with locker and dressing-rooms and its skating pond. The latest new buildings are the Mead Memorial Chapel and Hepburn Hall, a dormitory and commons for men. During the past seven years, over $800,000 has been added to the funds of the college for endowment and buildings; student attendance has doubled and the instructing staff now numbers thirty-one—more than double the number of seven years ago.
